

FERNDOWN MIDDLE SCHOOL

WEEKLY BULLETIN

EVENTS IN SCHOOL NEXT WEEK

- Pupils return to school from half term break on Monday 19th February
- Clubs restart this week - list on the school website showing the range of clubs available
- Travelling Book Fair in school all week
- Wednesday 21st February: Year 7 Careers extended assembly

NOTICEBOARD

- We have a vacancy for a clerk to the governors. Applications are invited, particularly if you have minute taking experience; however, full training and support will be offered to the right person. Please see the website for further details and an application form.
- During the week before half term, the children were involved in lots of different activities. Please ask them about what their year group have been doing and check out our website - scroll down to the news articles.
- We will be holding Parent Governor Elections over the next few weeks. If you are interested, please keep an eye out for the letter on ParentMail. If you would like to know more about what being a governor entails, please contact the Chair of Governors via the school office for an informal chat. You do not need to have specific experience or qualifications, just enthusiasm and a little spare time.
- If you have not yet read the report from the Ofsted visit in January, please look on our website under 'Information / Ofsted'.
- Encourage your child to enter the Radio 2 '500 Words' competition - close date 22nd February. Look at Radio 2 website for information.
- Auditions are under way for our event 'Ferndown's Got Talent'. More information to follow.
