NOTICEBOARD

Cashless Catering

Please remember to top-up your child's account if they are having school dinners and look out for reminders when their balance is low. We will be holding an additional fingerprinting session on Tuesday after the whole school assembly for those children who have permission and who have yet to have their fingerprint taken. If you need any assistance with ParentMail/ ParentPay please contact the school office.

Calling all Dancers

We are on the lookout for a group of 4 to 6 dancers who are confident in choreographing a dance to a set piece of music for the Christmas Concert on Wednesday 19th December from 7.00pm. If you are interested please see Ms Rice during Monday 5th November morning registration.

BBC Solent Christmas Writing Competition

BBC Radio Solent are holding a Christmas writing competition, for children 16 and under, to write a story of up to 350 words that'll be included in this year's BBC Radio Solent Carol Concert. They are looking for original ideas in writing - it could be a modern re-telling of a nativity or a story from their own imagination, but must have the spirit of Christmas and make them smile! There will be for four winners and, if picked, the winning story will be read out by one of their presenters at this year's Christmas Carol Concert recording on Sunday 9 December. Competition closes at 19:00 on Sunday 18 November. Entries to Mrs Bolton by 15th November 2018.

Birthday Table

Children can book the 'Birthday Table' at lunch time to celebrate their Birthday with a group of up to 7 friends. The table can be booked Monday to Thursday. Children will need to speak to Mrs Saxby the Midday Supervisor who will check availability and confirm the date of the booking. We are happy for you to provide cakes (preferably cupcakes/ small muffins) please drop them off at the school office on the morning of the booking.
