

Long Term Overview Year 6 Geography

Ferndown Middle School

Year Group	6	Subject	Geography	Taught in	Autumn
Title	Planet Tea - Kenya
Summary	Locate places on maps. Use climatic data to draw graphs. Compare the way of life in UK and Kenya. Understand and explain the poverty cycle. Compare and contrast social and economic processes. Understand how these processes can affect the environment. Debate the importance of saving the environment and becoming more sustainable.
Key Skills	*Use maps, atlases, globes and digital/computer mapping to locate countries and describe features studied *Locate the world's countries, using maps to focus on Europe (including the location of Russia) and North and South America, concentrating on their environmental regions, key physical and human characteristics, countries, and major cities *Describe and understand key aspects of human geography, including: types of settlement and land use, economic activity including trade links, and the distribution of natural resources including energy, food, minerals and water

Year Group	6	Subject	Geography	Taught in	Spring
Title	Mountains
Summary	Geographical features of mountains and hills. Compare and contrast different climates on the same mountain. Describe the weather features of mountains. Consider how mountain animals are adapted.
Key Skills	*Locate the world's countries, using maps to focus on Europe (including the location of Russia) and North and South America, concentrating on their environmental regions, key physical and human characteristics, countries, and major cities *Identify the position and significance of latitude, longitude, Equator, Northern Hemisphere, Southern Hemisphere, the Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn, Arctic and Antarctic Circle, the Prime/Greenwich Meridian and time zones (including day and night) *Describe and understand key aspects of physical geography, including: climate zones, biomes and vegetation belts, rivers, mountains, volcanoes and earthquakes, and the water cycle

Year Group	6	Subject	Geography	Taught in	Summer
Title	Map skills
Summary	Using different forms of maps, including OS and topographical. Recognising scales, symbols and be able to suggest when it is appropriate to use a particular type of map.
Key Skills	*Use fieldwork to observe, measure, record and present the human and physical features in the local area using a range of methods, including sketch maps, plans and graphs, and digital technologies. *Use the 8 points of a compass, 4 and 6-figure grid references, symbols and key (including the use of Ordnance Survey maps) to build their knowledge of the United Kingdom and the wider world				